Is there a difference in meaning between these terms? A: A rule is something like a style that may have selectors attached. A rule (as a concept) is a way of combining properties into one visual effect. A rule can be included in multiple style sheets. This SO question has a neat diagram: What is the difference between a style, property and rule? I may have used terms interchangeably. Q: Why can't I post my photo in Ubuntu O.S. Why can't I post my photo in Ubuntu O.S.? Why this problem occur? A: My guess would be a permissions issue: When
