FLOORBALL:
Electric Football The game is fast paced and simple, but is a great combination of two of my favourite sports — American Football and Soccer. The rules are similar to field hockey. Floorball The game starts with the two teams at opposite ends of the pitch. The ball is placed in the middle of the pitch. At the word “Go!”, both teams attack. Players may not touch the ball in the field of play, except to pass, shoot, or receive a pass. When the ball is in the air, the attacking player may not touch it again. When the attacking player touches the ball, he may roll the ball backwards to another player as long as this does not exceed the length of the court. When he does this, the ball is ‘Scored’ (not kicked). He may not touch the ball again until the ball is out of play or touched by a player or the goalkeeper. The object of the game is to have the most points by the end of the game. Points are counted when the ball is in play — when the ball is kicked or thrown by the attacking player, that counts — when a ball is Scored, that counts — when a player passes the ball to another player, that counts. When a ball is thrown in the air, the
